

How can surrealism related based movie influence us?

By Nicholas Tan Hao Lun and Lee Dong Yong

Synopsis

Surrealism is defined as a 20th century art movement which represented the subconscious mind of a person. Started in the 1920s during World War I and II, it was originally created to attack the society, but was treated as art instead of a dreadful rebellious artwork. It was said that they are from a person's deepest ,darkest feelings. Hence, since it was originally created to disturb the society, I would like to know how do people think of it, will it influence us in a positive way or vice versa.

Problem Statement

Both of these art-movement are created before or after the World War, one to evoke mood or ideas and another was created to attack the society, yet treated as art. Therefore, there can be a possibilities of these types of art movement being misuse, creating a disastrous moment to the society. How can this be prevented?
